AFFIDAVIT TO VERIFY EXEMPTION

Records of this office indicate that you are presently claiming a homestead exemption because of age & income or disability. State law requires that in order to maintain such exemption, you must annually verify the qualifying conditions of such exemption to continue to exist. Failure to do so will result in the loss of this exemption. As a convenience, you may sign the certification below and return this card by mail or in person to Tyler Wilks, Revenue Commissioner, 206 Grand Ave. SW, Fort Payne, AL 35967 prior to December 31st of this year.

If you feel your qualifications for an exemption have changed, please call (256) 845-8515.

I hereby verify by my signature below that conditions of age and income or disability by which I qualified for a homestead exemption continue to exist.

REAL PROPERTY EXEMPTION

Dear Taxpayer,

As of this date we have not received your signed exemption card to claim your exemption. In an effort to ensure a mistake was not made please sign and return this card as soon as possible. The cards were due on 12/31/20 and we need your response as soon as possible to ensure you keep your exemption. Failure to sign this form will result in the loss of your exempt status for the property and you will receive a tax bill in October 2021. If you feel your qualifications for exemption have changed please see additional information below.

Additional information:

If you are not signing for an exemption please check the appropriate statement and return this letter to our office.

☐ Person who claims exemption is deceased

☐ Property has been sold

☐ I no longer wish to claim this exemption

☐ I no longer live on this property

Sincerely,

Tyler Wilks

Revenue Commissioner
